

Are you about to establish a business in Finland?

- for foreign companies

Do you want to secure the success of your start-up activities in Finland?

When starting business activities in Finland, there are many things to consider from a legal and tax point of view. Accountor can help in the start-up activities.

How can Accountor help?

When expanding company's operations to Finland, there are many issues to consider from a legal and tax point of view, such as:

- + Suitable legal form, e.g. a branch, a subsidiary
- + Company's tax status in Finland, i.e. income tax liabilities, VAT liabilities
- + Employees' tax status in Finland and company's withholding liabilities
- + Company's employer obligations in Finland, employment agreement preparations and application of Finnish employment legislation

Accountor can assist in all the above mentioned matters.

What is the process?

- 1) Our experts will do a background-check and provide you preliminary comments on the taxation and the most suitable legal form.

If there are other parts of Finnish legislation your company should take into account, we'll advise you on those.

- 2) The necessary registrations and suitable legal form are recommended.
- 3) We'll assist in all practical procedures and employment matters, i.e. making necessary registrations and notifications.
- 4) Once your business is up and running, we can offer your company payroll and accounting services to make your day-to-day operations in Finland easier.
